Chapter 1 by Emiliano Garcia

There is an average family. They live in an average city Temple,Texas. One day everybody felt different. The teachers at school didn't give out any work they just slept all day in class. Even the Principal slept. A group of kids saw black shadows all day and it lead them to the locked basement in the school. Then the door just opened by itself. The kids went down the stairs and saw dead people hanging upsidedown. Then a voice said your dead. And killed the kids.and i started running and i was crying in the closet like a little baby and i went out to see if the ghost was still tearing off my little kids and i seen the eating the insides of the kids it was first the guts then the flesh and when i seen that i started to cry again and than they seen me and when i thought i was getting away i felt them gram my foot and they bit my foot and i cut off my leg and. Then nelson came and killed himself. His mom was crying and his mom killed herself to.
